

BioSpecifics Technologies Corp. to Present at Jefferies 2011 Global Healthcare Conference

LYNBROOK, NY – June 2, 2011 - BioSpecifics Technologies Corp. (NASDAQ: BSTC), a biopharmaceutical company developing first in class collagenase-based products, today announced that BioSpecifics' President, Tom Wegman, will present at the upcoming Jefferies 2011 Global Healthcare Conference in New York on Thursday, June 9, 2011 at 3:30pm EDT.

A live webcast of the presentation can be accessed under "Calendar of Events" in the Investor Relations section of the Company's website at www.biospecifics.com, or you may use the link: <http://www.wsw.com/webcast/jeff60/bstc/>.

About BioSpecifics Technologies Corp.

BioSpecifics Technologies Corp. is a biopharmaceutical company that has developed injectable collagenase for twelve clinical indications, three of which include: Dupuytren's contracture, Peyronie's disease, and frozen shoulder (adhesive capsulitis). Its strategic partner Auxilium Pharmaceuticals, Inc. markets XIAFLEX® in the U.S. for the treatment of Dupuytren's contracture. Pfizer, Inc. is responsible for marketing XIAPEX® in Europe and has announced European regulatory approval and the first commercial sale in the United Kingdom. Asahi Kasei Pharma Corporation is responsible for marketing XIAFLEX® in Japan. More information about BioSpecifics Technologies Corp. may be found on its website at www.biospecifics.com.

Contact:

BioSpecifics Technologies Corp.
Thomas L. Wegman, President
(516) 593-7000
thomas\_wegman@biospecifics.com